DEFENSE SECRETARY DICK CHENEY ADDRESS TO THE NATIONAL LEGAL
 CENTER FOR THE PUBLIC INTEREST

October 1, 1991
 Location: State Department, 2201 C Street NW, Benjamin
 Franklin Room 8th floor

Time: 1:15 p.m.

SECRETARY OF DEFENSE DICK CHENEY: It's a pleasure to be with you all today. I know this is a group that's had an interesting session. I've looked at your program. I know you've heard from Bill Webster, and I enjoyed very much serving with Bill over the years in his capacity as director of the FBI and director of the CIA, and, Bill, all of us wish you the very best now that you've escaped the clutches of government and gone on to better things.

I also want to say a word about the value that I place on the kind of jobs that all of you do with your organizations.

I am uniquely blessed to have as my general counsel the Department of Defense man who is a participant in your organization, Terry O'Donnell, who is the general counsel of the department.
